

Go Green—Anaconda Job Corps is Diggin' It

Breaking Ground for a People's Garden

AJCC Student Body President, Jose Villatoro, is involved in starting the People's Garden because, "I want to see more awareness of the environment. I hope the students will take this back out into the real world."

Doug Desaire "feels that this will change the Center for years to come!"

Back Row Left: Ronnie Morgan, Cheryl McNeil, Ray Ryan;
Front Row Left: David Robertson, Doug Desaire, Robert Zeitz and Jose Villatoro

Austin LeFevre loves being part of the garden because he would like to inspire people to plant more trees.

AJCC Counselor, Cheryl McNeil, and Student Body President, Jose Villatoro, showing their green thumbs as they transplant seedlings for the garden.

